Local Expertise

Cafico International

We help international companies and financial institutions doing business nationally or internationally by providing them with cost effective, tailored and independent trust and corporate services.

We specialise in offering an effective turnkey solution, minimising the management input on our clients, whilst assisting them in achieving their overall corporate objectives.

With offices in Dublin, London and Luxembourg we are regularly engaged by international companies seeking to establish or restructure their operations, assisting them with managing their projects and complying with the legal and fiscal responsibilities involved in the management and administration of their entities, working closely with local lawyers, auditors and other service providers.

Cafico International is authorised by the Aviation Working Group (AWG) to act as trustee service provider for the Global Aircraft Trading System (GATS), a digital trading platform that has been designed to modernise aircraft equipment trading and financing.

Our Promise

We have gained a solid reputation as a secure and reliable partner by adhering to our core values.
